

Accelerated NLP Master Practitioner

A range of advanced skills and insights to extend your abilities and professional development even more...

Course Overview

This is one of the most evolutionary and significant tools available today for creating business or personal change. Most of us don't have 20 or so days free for this, so we are delighted to offer you the chance to become fully qualified as a Master Practitioner in only 8 days! An impactful journey through the deeper drivers of behaviour, advanced communication, positive self analysis and belief.

Why this Course?

pitchblue, as one of the leaders in NLP based business training, provides the best NLP trainers, materials and training methods. Each delegate leaves with a superb level of personal growth and heightened knowledge - solidifying their effectiveness, focus and abilities. This course is the next step for any NLP Practitioner level delegates who may wish to explore this 'science' further.

Who is it Aimed at?

This is a powerful, fascinating and progressive approach for anyone looking to enhance their abilities even more - you'll reach new levels of competency, understanding and proficiency to excel. If you genuinely have a passion to be the best you can be - either in business or on a personal level, this programme can offer you limitless results. A 'must-have' for anyone in search of excellence.

What will I Learn?

During the accelerated NLP Master Practitioner training you can expect to learn how to use NLP applications in a wider array of business (and personal) settings. The title says it all, but this next level of NLP is all about mastery; in life, in business or in whatever application you choose. You'll become able to 'think differently' - and therefore able to attain a whole new dimension of distinction!

Why is this Program so Good ?

pitchblue will ensure that you master your NLP skills in a whole new way - you learn from a "higher logical level". This means that every NLP technique that you've learned before can be used much more powerfully and much more effectively. Our programmes are run by some of the UK's leading NLP trainers who've even guested on BBC Radio 2's Drivetime slot!
